Paid Medical Surveys

If you are a healthcare professional and interested in making extra money, then completing paid medical surveys can be a great side hustle.

As a Pharmacist, I've been doing this for almost a year now and have made over $2,000 with minimal effort.

I started in November 2019 and as of November 2021 my total side hustle earnings are:

You Can Do Better!

I spent hours researching and signing up with tons of consulting companies. However, what I found was that all the earnings above came from only a handful of companies.

I wasted so much time and energy signing up for opportunities that never came.

This is how I know you can do better than the results above because I'm giving you the list of companies that actually pay!

Getting Started

When getting started it's important to establish a system that is both Organized and Professional.

Organization will help you keep track of survey opportunities and keep track of completed surveys.

Professionalism will help you attract more survey opportunities.

Setting Up Your Email

Set up a New & Professional email. A professional email will be something like your first and last name at gmail.com:

Example: John.Doe@gmail.com

ONLY use this email for paid survey opportunities.

Many survey opportunities have a quota so the faster you respond the better. By setting up a dedicated email you know that any email you receive to that inbox is MONEY and should be a priority.

Lastly, set up notifications for that inbox to your phone or computer

Maximize Your Opportunities

The companies on the list above have a proven track record of providing consistent survey opportunities that pay very well.

You can set your own hourly rate with some companies. I would recommend a range of $200-$350 per hour. This keeps you eligible for most surveys while maximizing your profit.

Qualifying For Surveys

Many survey's will have a qualifying set of questions at the beginning.

Don't be discouraged if you don't qualify, there will be many more opportunities!

Tracking Your Earnings

It's important to track your earnings once you complete a consult and once you receive payment.

If you complete a consult and don't receive payment after 2 months you should follow up with the support team. They are usually good about sending payment right away.

I'm including a copy of the google sheet I use to track my earnings:
